

Name _____

The Fisherman's Wife

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What made the fish in the story unique?
 - a) It could sing beautifully.
 - b) It had colorful scales.
 - c) It was the largest fish in the ocean.
 - d) It could grant wishes.

2. Why did Hans release the magical fish back into the sea?
 - a) He wanted to keep it as a pet.
 - b) The fish promised him three wishes.
 - c) The fish begged for its life.
 - d) He didn't believe in magical fish.

3. What did Eliza initially wish for when she learned about the magical fish?
 - a) A grander home
 - b) A treasure chest
 - c) A larger fishing boat
 - d) A talking parrot

4. How did Eliza's attitude change as she received more wishes?
 - a) She became more grateful.
 - b) She grew more power-hungry and greedy.
 - c) She became a better fisherman.
 - d) She lost interest in wishes.

5. Why did the magical fish reverse all of Eliza's wishes in the end?
 - a) It was angry at Hans.
 - b) Eliza had learned her lesson.
 - c) She asked for too many wishes.
 - d) It was angered by her greed and arrogance.

