Fixing Elections

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. A student might say the 12th Amendment was good because it prevented election ties, or they might argue that the system should be even simpler.
2. Answers will vary. Some students might suggest a direct popular vote, while others might create a new system.
3. Answers will vary. A student may say that Jefferson would have won quickly because electors would have voted separately.
4. Answers will vary. Some may argue that the Electoral College is fair because it balances power, while others may think it is outdated.
