

Name _____

Fixing Mistakes

Short Answer Key

1. The government could not collect taxes and could not settle arguments between states.
2. The national government had no army, so they could not stop the rebellion quickly.
3. Legislative (makes laws), Executive (carries out laws), Judicial (decides if laws are fair).
4. When the President vetoes a law, they reject it so it does not become official.
5. To make sure no branch had too much power and to protect citizens' rights.

