

Name _____

Flat and Frustrated

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did Stanley feel when he realized he was flat?
 - a) Excited to have new abilities
 - b) Confused but hopeful
 - c) Upset and frustrated
 - d) Ready to have fun with his new shape

2. What happened when Stanley went to school?
 - a) He made new friends because of his flatness.
 - b) He felt uncomfortable when kids whispered and laughed at him.
 - c) The teacher turned him into a class project.
 - d) He loved showing off his new abilities.

3. How did Stanley react when his father suggested mailing him in an envelope?
 - a) He thought it was a great idea.
 - b) He was excited to travel in a new way.
 - c) He laughed and made a joke about it.
 - d) He refused because he just wanted to be normal again.

4. How did Arthur show that he cared about Stanley?
 - a) He told Stanley to stop complaining.
 - b) He ignored Stanley's feelings.
 - c) He promised to help find a way to fix it.
 - d) He enjoyed having a flat brother and did nothing to help.

5. What lesson does this version of Stanley's story teach?
 - a) Everyone reacts differently to challenges.
 - b) It is better to be flat than normal.
 - c) You should never ask for help.
 - d) Stanley was the only person who could solve his problem.

