

Name _____

Taste the Rainbow: Exploring the Flavors of Brazil

Short Answer Key

1. Acarajé is a deep-fried ball of black-eyed pea dough filled with shrimp and a spicy sauce, representing African influence on Brazilian cuisine.
2. "Cafézinho" is a strong and sweet espresso-like coffee enjoyed throughout the day in Brazil and is a symbol of hospitality and socialization.
3. The "rodízio" dining experience in Brazil involves diners paying a fixed price and being served a continuous flow of grilled meats brought to their tables by servers.
4. Brazilian cuisine caters to different dietary preferences by offering options for meat lovers, vegetarians, and vegans, such as tapioca pancakes filled with various ingredients.
5. Food is an important aspect of Brazilian culture as it brings people together, fosters social connections, and plays a central role in celebrations and family gatherings.

