

Name _____

Flawed Lessons

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Huck struggle with religion?
 - a) He does not believe in God
 - b) He sees that religious people do not always act kindly
 - c) He wants to become a preacher
 - d) He never learns about religion

2. What does Huck realize about school?
 - a) It prepares him for everything in life
 - b) It does not teach him how to make difficult moral choices
 - c) He enjoys every lesson
 - d) His teacher encourages him to question unfair rules

3. How does Miss Watson's behavior show hypocrisy?
 - a) She helps Huck escape from his father
 - b) She treats Jim with kindness and respect
 - c) She teaches about goodness but owns an enslaved person
 - d) She never talks about religion

4. Why is the feud between the Grangerfords and the Shepherdsons ironic?
 - a) They listen to sermons about love but continue to kill each other
 - b) They are actually best friends
 - c) They never go to church
 - d) They do not believe in fighting

5. What lesson does Huck learn about morality?
 - a) That school and religion always teach the best lessons
 - b) That Miss Watson's rules should always be followed
 - c) That doing the right thing is always easy
 - d) That following his conscience is more important than following society's rules

