

Name _____

The Girl Who Could Fly

Short Answer Key

1. She was six years old.
2. They said she was imagining things, and that there was no such thing as flying.
3. She wrote that she was sorry, but she had to go. She wrote that she needed to find out who she was and where she belonged. She wrote that she loved them, but she couldn't live a lie. She wrote that she would be fine, and that maybe someday, they would meet again.
4. They welcomed her warmly, and invited her to stay with them. They offered her food and shelter, and told her stories of their ancestors and their adventures.
5. They dreamed of flying around the world, and seeing new places and faces. They dreamed of flying forever, and never landing.

