

Name _____

Forced to Work

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the Middle Passage?
 - a) A trade route between the North and South colonies
 - b) A type of farming used in the South
 - c) A law that ended slavery in the colonies
 - d) The journey enslaved Africans took across the Atlantic

2. Why did plantation owners stop using indentured servants?
 - a) Enslaved workers could be forced to work for life
 - b) Indentured servants worked too hard
 - c) There were too many indentured servants
 - d) Indentured servants were more expensive

3. What were the main crops grown on Southern plantations?
 - a) Wheat, corn, and apples
 - b) Tobacco, rice, and cotton
 - c) Beans, potatoes, and tomatoes
 - d) Oranges, bananas, and sugar

4. How did the Northern colonies use enslaved labor?
 - a) They only used indentured servants
 - b) Enslaved people worked in cities as artisans and servants
 - c) They had large plantations like the South
 - d) They did not use any enslaved labor

5. What was one effect of the transatlantic slave trade?
 - a) More people became indentured servants
 - b) It helped end slavery quickly
 - c) It led to great suffering for enslaved people
 - d) It made slavery unnecessary in the colonies

