

Name _____

George Washington's Friendship with Founding Fathers

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. George Washington's friendship with Thomas Jefferson fostered cooperation and collaboration during the early years of the United States, leading to important decisions and policies that shaped the nation's future.
2. Benjamin Franklin's mentorship and diplomatic efforts influenced George Washington's leadership style, emphasizing diplomacy and compromise in his decision-making.
3. George Washington's leadership played a crucial role in establishing the federal government, setting precedents for the executive branch, and unifying a newly formed nation.
4. George Washington's commitment to unity and compromise helped bridge divisions and build a strong foundation for the United States, ensuring that different perspectives were considered in shaping the nation's direction.

