

Name _____

Helen Frankenthaler: The Art of Color and Spontaneity

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Helen Frankenthaler born?

- a) New York City, USA
- b) Paris, France
- c) London, England
- d) Madrid, Spain

2. What innovative technique did Helen Frankenthaler use in her famous painting "Mountains and Sea"?

- a) Sculpting
- b) Stain painting
- c) Collage
- d) Pointillism

3. How did Helen Frankenthaler describe her approach to art, particularly her use of color?

- a) She painted to depict the visible world.
- b) She painted to capture historical events.
- c) She painted to make the unseen seen.
- d) She painted to create realistic portraits.

4. In "Mountains and Sea," what effect did Helen Frankenthaler achieve with her paint-soaking technique?

- a) Thick, opaque layers of paint
- b) A luminous and translucent effect
- c) Strong, defined lines and shapes
- d) A grayscale, monochromatic composition

5. Besides painting, what other artistic forms did Helen Frankenthaler explore during her career?

- a) Music and dance
- b) Photography and film
- c) Theater and literature
- d) Printmaking and sculpture

