

Name _____

Helen Frankenthaler: The Art of Color and Spontaneity

Open Ended Response Questions

1. Helen Frankenthaler believed that color had the power to convey emotions and make the unseen seen. Can you provide examples from her artwork, such as "Mountains and Sea," that support this belief?
2. Imagine you are standing in front of "Mountains and Sea." Describe your emotional response to the painting and how the technique and use of color contribute to those feelings.
3. Helen Frankenthaler inspired generations of artists with her innovative approach to abstract art. How do you think her legacy continues to influence contemporary artists today?
4. Why do you think Helen Frankenthaler's art is often described as conveying a sense of spontaneity and freedom? What elements in her artwork contribute to this perception?

