

Name _____

Freedom's Challenge

Short Answer Key

1. Enslaved people believed that if all people deserved freedom, then slavery should end too.
2. Women helped by running farms and businesses, serving as spies, and even fighting in disguise.
3. More states allowed all white men, not just wealthy landowners, to vote.
4. Some Native Americans supported the British because they believed Britain would stop American settlers from taking their land.
5. The Revolution made people question whether freedom and equality should apply to all groups, not just wealthy white men.

