

Name _____

Friends Forever: The Power of Bonds

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the slam poem?
 - A. The pain of losing a friend
 - B. The power and beauty of friendship
 - C. The twists and turns of life
 - D. Misunderstandings and careless words

2. How does the poem describe the two friends in the beginning?
 - A. They were always happy and never had any disagreements.
 - B. They faced challenges and joys together.
 - C. They rarely spoke to each other.
 - D. They never shared their secrets.

3. What can sometimes lead to the end of a friendship, according to the poem?
 - A. Laughter and shared dreams
 - B. Secrets and shared experiences
 - C. A misunderstanding or a careless word
 - D. Storms and sunny rides

4. What does the poem suggest about the pain of losing a friend?
 - A. It's easy to forget.
 - B. It leaves a lasting void.
 - C. It can never be mended.
 - D. It's a common experience.

5. What message does the poem convey about friendships that have ended?
 - A. They are easily replaced by new friendships.
 - B. They leave lasting lessons and memories.
 - C. They should be forgotten.
 - D. They are not important.

