

Name _____

Friends Forever: The Power of Bonds

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you feel about the idea that friendships can end due to misunderstandings or careless words? Do you think it's important to try to mend such friendships?
2. Can you share a personal story or example of a friendship that had a lasting impact on you, whether it ended or endured?
3. In your opinion, what are some lessons that can be learned from the poem about the nature of friendships and how to navigate the challenges they may face?
4. Why do you think the poem emphasizes the idea that friendships, whether they end or continue, leave lasting lessons and memories in our lives? How have friendships impacted your own life?

