

Name _____

The Melody of Friendship

Short Answer Key

1. Leo possessed the talent of hearing the music of the natural world and understanding the language of animals. This made him special because it allowed him to communicate with and befriend animals.
2. Leo met Ella, the wounded bird, when he heard her singing a sorrowful tune in the woods. They became friends by sharing songs and stories with each other.
3. People in the village sought Leo's help to understand the language of animals, and he assisted them by interpreting animal messages and behaviors.
4. Leo refused the merchant's offer for Ella because he believed that true friendship was more valuable than gold, and he cherished the bond they shared.
5. Leo and Ella's friendship inspired the villagers to appreciate the harmony of nature and the importance of compassion for all living creatures. It brought people and animals closer together.

