

Name _____

Friendship's Echo

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the Haiku poem?
 - A. Childhood memories
 - B. Teenage friendships
 - C. Echoes of laughter
 - D. Secrets and mysteries

2. What is the significance of the line "Bonds that will endure"?
 - A. Friendships that will never change
 - B. Friendships that are fleeting
 - C. Friendships that are secret
 - D. Friendships that cause problems

3. What does the word "secrets" in the Haiku suggest about teenage friendships?
 - A. Teenagers don't share secrets.
 - B. Secrets can strengthen friendships.
 - C. Secrets can harm friendships.
 - D. Secrets are not important.

4. What emotions are associated with the Haiku's portrayal of teenage friendships?
 - A. Sadness and regret
 - B. Joy and longevity
 - C. Fear and insecurity
 - D. Anger and betrayal

5. What does "laughter echoes" imply about the nature of the friendships in the poem?
 - A. Laughter is rare in these friendships.
 - B. Laughter is remembered and continues.
 - C. Laughter is unimportant.
 - D. Laughter is a source of conflict.

