

Name _____

Friendship's Echo

Short Answer

1. Explain the significance of the phrase "Bonds that will endure" in the Haiku.
2. How do shared secrets contribute to the strength of teenage friendships, as mentioned in the poem?
3. Can you relate to the idea of "laughter echoes" in your own friendships? Share an example or thought.
4. What qualities do you think make teenage friendships strong and enduring?
5. Why do you think teenage friendships are often portrayed as significant in literature and in our lives?

