

Name _____

The Frightened Monster

In the spooky town of Gloomsville, there lived a peculiar monster named Monty. Monty was not like the other monsters; he had a secret fear that no one in Gloomsville could understand. Monty was terrified of children!

While other monsters reveled in scaring humans, Monty would hide in his cave whenever he heard the laughter of children. His monster friends couldn't comprehend why Monty was so afraid of these tiny humans. They thought children were delightful and amusing.

One day, Monty's best friend, a ghost named Casper, decided it was time to help Monty overcome his fear. Casper invited Monty to a secret meeting of monsters. In the eerie darkness of the forest, under the glow of the full moon, the monsters discussed their fears and how to face them.

With encouragement from his friends, Monty agreed to meet a child named Lily, who lived nearby. Lily was known for her kindness and love for animals. Casper introduced Monty to Lily, and they spent the day together, playing games and telling funny stories.

To Monty's surprise, Lily turned out to be a friendly, gentle child who had no intention of scaring him. They became fast friends, and Monty's fear of children began to fade away. He realized that children were not as scary as he had imagined.

Monty's monster friends were overjoyed to see his transformation. They celebrated by organizing a Halloween party for all the monsters and children in Gloomsville, where Monty and Lily were the guests of honor.

From that day forward, Monty was no longer afraid of children. He had learned that sometimes the things we fear the most can turn out to be the most wonderful surprises.

