

Name _____

The Enchanted Fruit Stand

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sarah likely felt amazed and curious when she first discovered The Enchanted Fruit Stand. She became a regular customer because she wanted to experience the unique and magical powers of the fruits.
2. Answers may vary, but students might choose a fruit with the power to teleport, so they could instantly visit different places, or a fruit that grants the ability to talk to pets, making it easier to understand and communicate with animals.
3. The Enchanted Fruit Stand brought joy and wonder to the town by giving people access to magical powers that could brighten their lives and help them solve everyday problems. It fostered a sense of community as people shared their adventures and made new friends.
4. Answers may vary, but students might offer fruits that let you time travel, control the weather, or instantly learn new skills. The possibilities are endless, and these fruits would bring even more magic to The Enchanted Fruit Stand.

