

Name _____

Funny Consequences

Short Answer Key

1. The Cat's humor makes the story fun by exaggerating his actions, like balancing objects and causing silly chaos, which entertains readers.
2. The Fish warns the children because he knows their mother would not approve of the mess and wants to prevent trouble.
3. Thing 1 and Thing 2 knock over furniture, make books fall, and cause a mess that adds to the chaos in the house.
4. The Cat cleans up the mess he made, showing that even after mistakes, it's important to take responsibility and fix them.
5. The siblings feel anxious because the house is messy, and they know their mother will be upset if she sees it.

