

Name _____

Political Parties: Shaping the Future of Government

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are political parties?
 - a) Random groups of people
 - b) Organized groups with similar beliefs and goals in government
 - c) Government agencies
 - d) Sports teams

2. What is one of the primary purposes of political parties?
 - a) Representing citizens
 - b) Selling products
 - c) Creating art
 - d) Building houses

3. How do political parties participate in elections?
 - a) They organize sports events
 - b) They nominate candidates
 - c) They collect taxes
 - d) They operate schools

4. What role do election platforms play in politics?
 - a) They are platforms for physical exercise
 - b) They outline a party's goals and plans
 - c) They build houses
 - d) They make cars

5. In a democratic system with checks and balances, what role do opposition parties play?
 - a) They hold the government accountable
 - b) They make cookies
 - c) They build bridges
 - d) They teach math

