

Name _____

Future Impact

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you could time travel, what rules would you follow to avoid changing the future?
2. Do you think Eckels is responsible for what happened, or was it an accident? Why?
3. What are some real-life examples of small actions that have had big effects on the environment?
4. How does this story make you think differently about how people should treat nature?

