

Name _____

The Gaming Conspiracy

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Lena uncovered the existence of The Codebreakers and their secret cheat code through interviews with gamers, studying the cheat code, and staking out the local arcade.
2. The Codebreakers decided to renounce the cheat code and return to fair play because they had become addicted to the thrill of competition and feared that the cheat code would ruin the essence of gaming.
3. Lena's detective work exposed the conspiracy and helped The Codebreakers make their decision public. It revealed her determination, curiosity, and commitment to fairness in gaming.
4. The story does not provide specific details about how the GameMaster reacted when their identity was exposed as a member of The Codebreakers.
5. Fair competition was important to the gaming community in Gameville because it emphasized the importance of skill and sportsmanship. The return to fair play changed the city's gaming scene by promoting honest competition.

