

Name _____

Exploring the Role of Gender in Poverty and Income Disparities

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one factor contributing to the gender wage gap mentioned in the passage?
  - a) Women's better access to education
  - b) Equal pay for equal work
  - c) Gender-based discrimination in pay
  - d) Men's lower participation in the labor market

2. How does unpaid care work affect women's economic participation?
  - a) It enhances their opportunities for higher-paying jobs.
  - b) It limits their participation in the formal labor market.
  - c) It increases their access to education.
  - d) It has no impact on their economic prospects.

3. What is occupational segregation, as discussed in the passage?
  - a) Equal representation of men and women in all jobs
  - b) A concentration of women in lower-paying jobs and underrepresentation in higher-paying fields
  - c) Women's dominance in leadership roles
  - d) Men's underrepresentation in caregiving professions

4. Why is empowering women economically important for reducing income disparities?
  - a) It has no impact on income disparities.
  - b) It can lead to greater occupational segregation.
  - c) It promotes economic growth and reduces income disparities.
  - d) It limits women's access to education.

5. How did Frida Kahlo use her art to address gender issues?
  - a) She focused exclusively on self-portraits.
  - b) She ignored gender-related themes in her artwork.
  - c) She explored themes of identity and the role of women in society in her self-portraits.
  - d) She advocated for gender-based discrimination in her paintings.

