Name _____

Generation Gap: Bridging the Divide

Short Answer

1. How does the poem describe the teenagers' relationship with technology?

2. Can you provide an example from your own life of a time when you had to bridge a generation gap or communicate with someone from a different age group?

3. What message does the poem convey about the importance of understanding and patience in bridging the generation gap?

4. Explain the significance of the line "It's the love and connection that bind every heart."

5. How does the poem suggest that adults and teenagers can come together and understand each other better?

© ReadingDuck.com