

Name _____

Unraveling Mysteries: The World of Geneticists

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary focus of geneticists?
 - a) Astronomy
 - b) The study of genes and heredity
 - c) Marine biology
 - d) Geology

2. What is the minimum level of education most geneticists have?
 - a) A high school diploma
 - b) A bachelor's degree in genetics
 - c) A Ph.D. in literature
 - d) An associate's degree in art

3. Why do geneticists need strong laboratory skills?
 - a) To write poetry
 - b) To analyze DNA, run experiments, and use advanced techniques
 - c) To become professional athletes
 - d) To work as chefs

4. Why is empathy an important skill for genetic counselors?
 - a) To become stand-up comedians
 - b) To provide support and guidance to individuals and families facing genetic conditions
 - c) To operate heavy machinery
 - d) To work in construction

5. In which field of genetics do geneticists assist in criminal investigations?
 - a) Clinical Genetics
 - b) Research Genetics
 - c) Forensic Genetics
 - d) Pharmacogenetics

