

Name _____

Indonesia's Unique Geography

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Indonesia's location near the equator results in:
 - a) Extreme cold temperatures
 - b) Consistent tropical temperatures
 - c) Frequent snowfall
 - d) Arid desert conditions

2. Indonesia is part of the Pacific Ring of Fire, known for:
 - a) Low volcanic activity
 - b) A lack of earthquakes
 - c) High volcanic and seismic activity
 - d) Dense urban development

3. The boundary of which two tectonic plates runs through Indonesia?
 - a) African Plate and Eurasian Plate
 - b) North American Plate and Pacific Plate
 - c) Eurasian Plate and Indo-Australian Plate
 - d) South American Plate and Antarctic Plate

4. What makes Indonesia one of the most culturally and biologically diverse countries in the world?
 - a) Its large population
 - b) Its numerous islands and ecosystems
 - c) Its strong military presence
 - d) Its tall mountain ranges

5. Which islands in Indonesia are known for their extensive rainforests and rich biodiversity?
 - a) Bali and Lombok
 - b) Sumatra and Borneo
 - c) Java and Sulawesi
 - d) Flores and Komodo

