

Name _____

Tree Rings and Lake Sediments as Natural Timekeepers

Short Answer Key

1. The amount of rain or sunlight in that year.
2. By drilling into the bottom of the lake to collect layers.
3. What kinds of plants lived in the area at that time.
4. To get a clearer picture of what the climate was like.
5. It helps predict future climate changes and prepare for them.

