

Name _____

The Ghostly Game of Hide and Seek

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. The atmosphere in the old, abandoned mansion during the ghostly game of Hide and Seek was likely filled with excitement, laughter, and a sense of playfulness. It would have been spooky yet joyful, with echoes of giggles and jokes, making it a fun and unique place for the ghosts to play.
2. Casper and his friends likely enjoyed playing games like Hide and Seek because they provided a way for them to have fun and interact with each other. Games allowed them to bond and share laughter, making their afterlife more enjoyable and less lonely.
3. Wendy's hiding spot was likely cleverly chosen and well-concealed, making it challenging for Casper to find her. It might have been a hidden nook or cranny within the mansion where she could giggle quietly without being discovered.
4. The laughter of the ghosts likely had a positive effect on the town of Spooksville. It could have created a unique and fun atmosphere, making the town even more special. The laughter might have brought joy to the residents, adding to the spooky but cheerful ambiance of the town.

