

Name _____

Giving Back Together: A Community's Gift to Kids

Short Answer Key

1. Sarah worked on the talent show auditions, Mia and Emma organized games, James and Alex handled the food stalls, and they all went door to door to invite neighbors to participate and contribute.
2. The Harmonyville Fun Fair was considered a success because it raised a significant amount of money, $5,000, for the local children's hospital. It also brought the community together and created a joyful atmosphere.
3. Local businesses and neighbors donated prizes and supplies to support the event.
4. The friends hoped to use the money to benefit the local children's hospital by purchasing new medical equipment, providing toys for the children, and supporting families in need.

