

Name _____

Do Giraffes Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of relationship do giraffes have with oxpecker birds?
  - A) Mutualism
  - B) Parasitism
  - C) Commensalism
  - D) Competition

2. How do antelopes benefit from staying near giraffes?
  - A) They receive protection
  - B) They get food
  - C) They clean the giraffe's skin
  - D) They scare predators away

3. What do ticks do to giraffes?
  - A) Help them find food
  - B) Clean their fur
  - C) Protect them from predators
  - D) Drink their blood

4. Why do giraffes help balance the ecosystem?
  - A) They scare predators
  - B) They eat leaves, preventing overgrowth
  - C) They protect smaller animals
  - D) They plant trees

5. Which of the following is an example of commensalism?
  - A) Ticks feeding on giraffes
  - B) Oxpeckers eating parasites
  - C) Antelopes staying near giraffes
  - D) Giraffes scaring predators

