

Name _____

Gladiatorial Spectacle: Witnessing a Battle in the Colosseum

Short Answer Key

1. The atmosphere inside the Colosseum is described as "electric with excitement and anticipation," with a diverse crowd eagerly awaiting the gladiator battle.
2. The gladiators' armor and weapons are significant for both their practical use in combat and their symbolic meaning as they represent the identity and role of the gladiators.
3. The diverse crowd in the Colosseum includes senators, soldiers, slaves, and citizens, creating a mixed audience with varied perspectives and reactions.
4. The narrative depicts the complex mix of emotions in the spectators, with the thrill of the spectacle and admiration for the gladiators' bravery coexisting with a sense of unease and recognition of the brutality of the entertainment.
5. 80 AD in Ancient Rome

