

Name _____

Guardians of the Goal: The Roles of Goalkeepers and Defenders in Soccer

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of a goalkeeper in soccer?
 - a) Scoring goals
 - b) Preventing opponents from scoring by stopping shots on goal
 - c) Marking opponents
 - d) Distributing passes to teammates

2. What is one of the key responsibilities of defenders in soccer?
 - a) Making accurate passes to forwards
 - b) Joining the attack by making runs
 - c) Preventing opponents from advancing the ball into scoring positions
 - d) Organizing the team's midfield play

3. What is a critical skill required for goalkeepers in soccer?
 - a) Strong tackling ability
 - b) Quick reflexes and shot-stopping abilities
 - c) Overlapping runs
 - d) Intercepting passes

4. How do goalkeepers and defenders contribute to defending during set pieces and dead ball situations?
 - a) By organizing the attack
 - b) By marking opponents tightly and preventing goals
 - c) By taking free kicks and corner kicks
 - d) By dribbling the ball out of the defensive zone

5. Why is communication important for goalkeepers and defenders in soccer?
 - a) To score goals
 - b) To organize the defense, mark opponents, and coordinate strategies
 - c) To make overlapping runs
 - d) To distribute passes to the midfield

