

Name _____

The Tale of the Golden Phoenix

Once upon a time, in a mystical land far away, there lived a young girl named Mia. Mia was known throughout the village for her kindness and love for all creatures, big and small. She had a special bond with the animals of the forest, and they would often seek her out for help.

One sunny morning, as Mia was gathering wildflowers in the forest, she heard a faint cry for help. Following the sound, she came upon a magnificent golden phoenix, trapped in a thorny bush. The phoenix's radiant feathers shone like the sun, and it was struggling to break free.

Without hesitation, Mia carefully approached the phoenix and gently untangled it from the thorns. The majestic bird looked at her with eyes filled with gratitude and spoke in a melodious voice, "Dear Mia, you have saved me from a terrible fate. As a token of my gratitude, I shall grant you one wish."

Mia thought for a moment and then said, "I wish for the well-being and happiness of all the creatures in this forest."

The phoenix smiled and granted her wish. Instantly, the forest burst into life, and all the animals were filled with joy and contentment. Mia had brought harmony and happiness to the land.

From that day on, the golden phoenix became Mia's guardian and protector. Together, they continued to care for the forest and all its inhabitants, living in peace and harmony.