

Name _____

The Tale of King Midas and the Golden Touch

Short Answer Key

1. King Midas learned the importance of not being greedy and valuing the things that truly matter in life, such as family and happiness.
2. Dionysus granted King Midas' wish as a gesture of gratitude for helping his friend Silenus, who was lost and drunken.
3. King Midas had to promise to never be greedy again in order to have the golden touch reversed by Dionysus.
4. King Midas realized that wealth and riches were not as important as the love and well-being of his daughter, and he became more humble and content.
5. King Midas lived a humble and content life, treasuring the simple pleasures of life and valuing time spent with his daughter.

