Name _____

The Goodness Challenge

Short Answer

1. Why did Mr. Thornton offer a substantial reward to the person who could prove they had done the most good for society?

2. What kind of projects did the residents of Brightville undertake as contenders in the competition?

3. What was the criterion for winning the goodness competition in Brightville?

4. Why did Mr. Thornton choose Sarah as the winner of the competition?

© ReadingDuck.com