

Name _____

The Goodness Challenge

Short Answer Key

1. Mr. Thornton offered the reward to leave a legacy reflecting his values, and the competition changed the city by inspiring residents to undertake various projects that improved Brightville.
2. The residents undertook projects such as community gardens, tutoring sessions, park cleanups, and youth internships. The competition reflected Mr. Thornton's values by encouraging positive change, and it had a profound impact on both the contenders and the community.
3. Mr. Thornton chose Sarah as the winner because her project provided clean drinking water to remote villages, greatly benefiting families. His decision was likely influenced by the significant impact of her project, and it was a fair choice.
4. "The Goodness Challenge" highlights the potential for individuals and communities to make a positive impact on society through their efforts and contributions. Such competitions inspire people to take action and improve their communities by addressing important issues and needs.

