

Name _____

Medieval Trade and Commerce: A World of Goods and Exchange

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which famous trade route connected the East and West during the medieval period?
 - a) Spice Route
 - b) Silk Road
 - c) Salt Road
 - d) Gold Route

2. What goods were commonly traded on the Trans-Saharan trade routes?
 - a) Silk and spices
 - b) Gold, salt, and ivory
 - c) Textiles and gems
 - d) Furs and timber

3. Which European cities became renowned for hosting medieval trade fairs?
 - a) New York and Los Angeles
 - b) Cologne, Champagne, and Bruges
 - c) London and Paris
 - d) Rome and Athens

4. What role did the Mediterranean Sea play in medieval trade?
 - a) It was a land route for trade.
 - b) It facilitated maritime trade between Europe, Asia, and Africa.
 - c) It was a barrier to trade.
 - d) It had no impact on medieval commerce.

5. What types of goods were commonly exchanged in local and regional trade during the medieval period?
 - a) Precious metals
 - b) Luxury items
 - c) Food, clothing, and tools
 - d) Silk and spices

