

Name _____

The Goose Girl

Short Answer Key

1. The maid became jealous of Princess Anneliese due to her beauty and her close bond with Falada, the talking horse.
2. Falada played a role in helping Anneliese regain her identity by advising her to collect her tears in a cup, which would later reveal the truth about her.
3. The true princess's tears revealed the truth about her identity in the marketplace when the cup she collected them in spoke aloud, exposing the deceitful maid.
4. After her treachery was exposed, the deceitful maid was punished for her actions.
5. The kingdom reacted to the revelation of Anneliese's true identity with shock and recognition, and she was freed to marry the prince.

