

Name _____

Gorilla Family: From Birth to Caregiving

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Gorillas live in groups for protection, companionship, and raising young.
2. The mother provides milk, warmth, and safety for survival.
3. People can protect gorillas by preserving forests and stopping poaching.
4. Young gorillas often play together, climb trees, and watch the adults closely.

