

Name _____

Inside the Government of Indonesia

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the significance of the separation of powers among the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the Indonesian government.
2. Explain how regional governance works in Indonesia and how it helps address the diverse needs of different regions within the country.
3. Explore the role of civil society and citizen participation in promoting democracy and good governance in Indonesia.
4. Imagine you are a member of a political party in Indonesia. Describe the steps you would take to participate in a legislative election and the responsibilities you would have if elected to the People's Representative Council (DPR).

