

Name _____

Unlocking the Mystery of China's Government

Short Answer Key

1. The Premier of the State Council is responsible for implementing government policies and serves as the head of government.
2. The CPC influences government decisions by setting policies, overseeing their implementation, and selecting government officials at various levels, including the President and Premier.
3. "People's democracy" encourages citizen participation in grassroots-level elections and decision-making at the local level. It empowers people to have a say in local affairs.
4. Local governments in China have a degree of autonomy in managing local affairs while operating under the guidance of the central government. They handle regional governance and development.
5. (Answers may vary. Criticism: Human rights abuses. Praise: Economic growth and poverty reduction.)

