Government Debate

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Example: "I would support the Anti-Federalists because I think states should have more control over their own laws."
2. Answers will vary. Example: "I think the national government should have more power because all states should follow the same rules to be fair."
3. People need their rights protected so they can express their opinions and make personal choices.
4. The U.S. still debates how much power the government should have, just like the Federalists and Anti-Federalists did.
