

Name _____

Ode to Graduation Moments

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes graduation as "so bright" because it signifies the end of one chapter and the beginning of new opportunities.
2. Memories and dreams are depicted as treasures carried by the graduates in their hearts, and they are important because they provide inspiration and motivation for their future endeavors.
3. The phrase "new beginnings await" implies that the graduates have a fresh start ahead of them, full of possibilities and adventures.
4. "The world's our oyster" suggests that the graduates have endless opportunities and potential in the world, waiting to be discovered.
5. The poem captures the emotions and feelings associated with graduation by emphasizing the sense of accomplishment, hope, and anticipation for the future.

