

Name _____

The Great Baking Battle

Short Answer Key

1. The judges used three criteria to evaluate the baked creations: flavor, creativity, and presentation.
2. Emily made "Tropical Paradise Cupcakes" with hints of coconut and pineapple.
3. The young bakers faced the challenge of a sudden summer rain shower, and they responded by protecting their creations with tents and plastic covers.
4. Emily's "Tropical Paradise Cupcakes" won first place in the baking contest because of their unique blend of flavors.
5. The children learned that the real reward was the fun they had and the joy they brought to Sweetville with their delectable creations, emphasizing the importance of friendship, creativity, and the love of baking over competition.

