

Name _____

Becoming a Super Friend: The Art of Being a Great Pal

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one essential quality of a good friend mentioned in the passage?

- a) Jealousy
- b) Trustworthiness
- c) Dishonesty
- d) Rudeness

2. Why is active listening important in being a good friend?

- a) To gossip about others
- b) To show genuine interest in what others have to say
- c) To interrupt and share your own stories
- d) To make fun of others

3. How should friends handle conflicts, according to the passage?

- a) By avoiding each other
- b) By calmly and respectfully seeking compromise and understanding
- c) By yelling and blaming each other
- d) By pretending the conflict never happened

4. What is the key to dealing with jealousy in a friendship?

- a) Ignoring your feelings of jealousy
- b) Hiding your true emotions
- c) Understanding the source of your feelings and addressing them
- d) Making your friend feel guilty for your jealousy

5. What is the primary message of the passage?

- a) Friendships are easy and require no effort.
- b) Being a good friend requires specific qualities and skills.
- c) Conflict in friendships is unavoidable and leads to the end of the friendship.
- d) Being a good friend means always getting your way.

