

Name _____

The Great Pillow Fight Championship

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Great Pillow Fight Championship brought an atmosphere of excitement and unity to Crestwood Middle School. It allowed students to bond through laughter and teamwork, turning rivals into friends. The tradition had become cherished because it created lasting memories and fostered a strong sense of community.
2. Answers will vary but may include personal strategies for building forts, launching attacks, and forming alliances with friends. Students can describe their experiences and tactics.
3. School traditions like the Great Pillow Fight Championship contribute to a sense of belonging by fostering a shared experience among students. They create a feeling of unity and pride in the school community, making students feel like they are part of something special.
4. Creative event ideas may include themed pillow fights, obstacle courses, or charity fundraisers involving pillow fights. Special features like unique pillows, costumes, or water-based challenges can make the event memorable and enjoyable for participants.

