

Name _____

Greed and Giving

Short Answer Key

1. Scrooge refuses to give to charity because he believes the poor should rely on workhouses and prisons instead of help from others.
2. Scrooge realizes that his greed caused him to lose Belle and the chance for a loving relationship.
3. The Cratchit family's love and happiness show Scrooge that money isn't necessary to create a joyful life, inspiring him to value generosity.
4. Scrooge sees that he will die alone and unloved and that Tiny Tim will die if Scrooge does not help the Cratchit family.
5. Scrooge becomes generous by helping the Cratchits, donating to charity, and spreading kindness and joy to everyone he meets.

