Greed's Consequences

Short Answer Key

1. Augustus Gloop's greed leads to his downfall because he drinks from the chocolate river, even after being warned, and gets stuck in a pipe.
2. Veruca Salt's story teaches that being selfish and demanding can lead to negative consequences.
3. Violet ignores Willy Wonka's warning because she wants to be the first to try something new and prove she is the best.
4. The lesson from Mike Teavee's experience is that being too focused on technology and ignoring safety rules can lead to bad results.
5. Charlie is different from the other children because he is kind, humble, and follows the rules instead of being greedy or selfish.
