

Name _____

Green Guardians: Protecting Our Earth

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes the current state of the Earth's environment as being in crisis due to pollution, plastic seas, melting ice, and poisoned air.
2. Students can provide examples of small steps like recycling, reducing waste, or participating in community clean-up efforts.
3. The poem conveys that individuals have the collective power to make a significant impact on environmental issues by taking actions like recycling and reducing pollution.
4. The line signifies that individuals have the potential to be heroes and guardians of the environment by taking action to protect and preserve it.
5. The poem inspires hope and action by emphasizing that it's in our hands to make a positive change for the environment and that small steps can lead to significant improvements.

